6th March, 1928

William Clifford, Esq.,
Librarian,
Metropolitan Museum of Art

Dear Mr. Clifford:

I have just received word from Mr. Kent that the Index for the Bulletin for 1925 is out of print. Is there any chance that you would have a copy among your duplicates?

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Dear Mr. Clifford:

Responding to your note of April 13th, I am enclosing a list of our Numismatic Notes and Monographs of which you state that you have the issues for 1923 and 1926. If you desire a complete file of these, or as nearly complete a one as we can supply, please let me have word to that effect. If you prefer to have only certain of the issues please check on the list those which would be useful to your readers and we shall be very glad to send them to you.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary.

William Clifford, Esq.
Librarian, Metropolitan Museum of Art
New York City

Dear Mr. Clifford:

Your letter of the 29th has been received. Yes, I have made doubly sure that the Metropolitan Museum Library will receive future monographs. I am at a loss to explain our failure to send these previous ones.

I had a nice note from Mr. Adams' grandson saying that there was reason to hope for his recovery.

Very sincerely yours,

Secretary.
